Extra, Extra, Read All About It!
Grades 3-5

January 15 – March 19, 2013

Taught by Ms. Katie Noonan, Irving's Librarian, and Ms. Jessika Homann, Irving 3rd Grade Teacher

Description: The course will begin with a couple of weeks of dissecting current newspapers and becoming familiar with the parts of the paper. We will look at opinion pieces, news pieces, sports pieces and others. After those weeks, we will begin brainstorming topics for our newspaper. The remaining weeks will be devoted to researching, writing and editing the pieces. Students will have weekly assignments to bring to class. These might include an interview or some research. In the final weeks of class, the students will participate in choosing pieces to be included in a final printed newspaper that will be handed out to the student population. Please do not register this class if you took it in the fall. There will be a more advanced class offered in the spring session for students who have taken this class in either the fall or winter session.

From Page to Stage
Grades K-5
Taught by Child's Play Touring Theatre

January 16 – March 20, 2013

Child's Play Touring Theatre is a 501(c)3 educational arts organization whose mission is to share, encourage and validate the creativity of children by performing original works of theatre, music and dance adapted from literature written by young authors. (Interesting fact: Tina Fey used to work for them!)

Description: In this series of workshops, led by Child's Play Touring Theatre, our teaching artists lead students in sharing their own ideas through vocal and physical warm-ups, theatre games, concentration exercises and improvisation techniques. Students will then be involved in the creation of an original performance of stories and poems that they have written and adapted for the stage. They will then present this performance to their peers and family members. Over the course, children will attain skills in ensemble building, creative writing, public speaking, conflict resolution, story development, leadership and imaginative play.

Minimum/Maximum class size: 8/20.

Course is 10 weeks; 2:00-4:00pm

Cost: $165

Thumb Tacks
Grades K-2
Taught by Sharp As A Tack

January 16 – March 20, 2013

Sharp As A Tack's main mission is to help students improve academic achievement by developing their cognitive abilities and to help them develop important life skills that will lead to a lifetime of successes in the classroom, in the community and within the family. A secondary mission is to foster an environment that will help improve students' self-esteem, self worth, and self-confidence, as well as to provide a venue to develop interpersonal skills such as communication, cooperation, teamwork, and leadership.

The Sharp As A Tack Student Programs have been designed to help students develop their ability to think, think independently, think creatively, know how to solve problems, make sound decisions, process information quickly and efficiently and know how to lead responsibly in an environment that is FUN! Students have been in school all day. We just want our students to come in, have fun, laugh and simply have a blast with their peers – they don't need to know that they are developing important skills that will lead them to a lifetime of success! SHHHH, don't tell them!

Description: Sharp As A Tack is Play with Purpose! Our programs use a wide variety of games to build kids' critical thinking and social skills in an environment that encourages them to work with others, stretch their comfort zone and, most importantly, have fun! Kids will play large and small group games that focus on collaboration, communication, focus, attention, and other cognitive skills.

Minimum/Maximum class size: 8/20.

Course is 10 weeks; 2:00-3:00pm
